Datel's unique technology helps you create fabulous web content by combining your story with real-time data from official sources and social media.

Software platform for White House initiative "The Opportunity Project" www.FindYour.town

Key benefits:
- you can tell your story by creating attractive, and intuitive web content and modify it swiftly
- integrating data from state resources not only enhances your message, but helps create new value chains with both businesses and governments
- for state agencies it is an excellent instrument for demonstrating their achievements in an intuitive and convincing form. Most people won't read 200+ pages of PDF reports in the year 2018.

Under the hood:
- we integrate live data from different sources and visualize it in the form of intuitive electronic maps and animations
- using cloud hosting, we provide tailor-made solutions and easy assistance, wherever you are
- mobile access - naturally!
